Fresh Organic Strawberries with Focus on Flavor First.

Jordan Farms, located in Dover, Florida, has been growing certified organic strawberries since 1999 on land that has been in the family for over 75 years. They combined a friend's experience as a conventional strawberry grower with their own hands-on experience in organic growing to bring the best-tasting organic strawberry to the market. In the last year Jordan Farms has doubled their organic strawberry acreage increasing the availability of their tasty fruit.
